

Skills Assessment Waivers

In certain circumstances, students may qualify for a skills assessment exemption. Official documentation must be provided for skills assessment waivers to be applied. Exemptions may be granted when:

- a student has earned an associate's, bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree from an accredited institution.
- a student provides documentation of qualifying scores on the PSAT, SAT and/or ACT assessments (See required scores chart).
- a student has successfully completed parallel coursework at another accredited institution of higher education.
- a student provides a high school transcript with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (must be within 5 years).
- a student has earned a GED with a minimum passing college-ready score of 165.
